Description

The program abroad will feature exciting week-long stays in Dar es Salaam, Arusha, and Zanzibar with short day trips to surrounding areas. Working professionals and students will have the opportunity to participate in experiential learning within a variety of community contexts including: (1) visits to historical sites, monuments, and museums (e.g., slave market, slave caravan, colonial buildings); (2) visits to contemporary sites that illustrate the economic and cultural diversity of East Africa; (3) discussions with Tanzanian experts on pre-history, slavery, and colonization; (4) safaris in some of the most popular game drives in Africa ; (5) visits to some of the most pristine beaches in the world; and (6) after-hours enjoyment in local restaurants and entertainment venues.

Eligibility

This program/course is open to working professionals and students over the age of 18. Students must be in good standing with their University at the time of the program to participate and receive credit. All participants MUST attend a mandatory one-day orientation sessions before the trip in order to travel. The program involves quite a bit of moving around from city to city, and walking in hot temperatures, plan accordingly. Program size is limited to 15 and participation is contingent upon acceptance by the Program Director.

Program Cost

The program cost may vary at any time according to currency fluctuations. The cost is tentatively set at $3,900, plus any fees for tuition from the university (only if traveling as a student for credit). Non-resident/out-of-state students will pay in-state tuition plus a $250 fee in addition to the program cost. Again, this only applies to student travelers.
